Our program allows St. John's parishioners to purchase gift certificates for every day expenses like food, clothing, gas, and entertainment while earning a percentage of each dollar of SCRIP purchased back in revenue for St. John's. So instead of writing checks at the gas station and the grocery store, you write a check to St. John's and receive gift cards for the merchants you patronize for those items. The certificates are purchased in bulk at a discount and sold at face value.

From the Pastor

For my bulletin reflection this Sunday, I want us to take a bird's eye view of what is going on in the Church this week. Easter Vigil is the traditional time for people to enter the Church and still is for adult converts who need to be baptized. Although we sadly don't have anyone being baptized this year, we do have a few people who are already baptized who are looking to enter into full communion with the Church, and so hopefully sometime during the Easter season you may see a confirmation at mass. The Third Sunday of Lent marks the celebration of the first of three scrutinies which are celebrated on the successive Sundays of Lent, a time where we as the Church pray for those who will be baptized at Easter, that they may be purified, their hearts opened more fully to the Gospel, and their minds enlightened by the faith through the outpouring of God's grace.

I hope while reading that list, you realize that these prayers also apply to ourselves, that we are called to deeper conversion, to uniting ourselves more and more fully to our Lord, not just because it's the Third Sunday in Lent, but because we should always want to grow in union with Jesus. Please keep all those who will be entering the Church at Easter in your prayers in these coming weeks, and also pray for our own ongoing conversion.

- Fr. John Powers

This theme is an invitation for all to reach out in solidarity to share God's love, mercy and peace with our brothers and sisters around the world by offering our support during Lent. This appeal supports the pastoral needs of the Catholic Church in Central and Eastern Europe, Africa, Latin America and humanitarian activities of Catholic Relief Service. There will not be a second collection for this appeal and no envelopes were provided for this collection. Please place your donation in an envelope marked "Global Solidarity" and drop it in next weekend's regular collection. Please be as generous as you are able in sharing God's love for your brothers and sisters around the world. Thank you.

a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again."
- John 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us over the long run. When we build our lives around material possessions we will always want more, and no amount will ever satisfy our desire. True joy and peace only come when we follow Jesus - when we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

WE REMEMBER

Gary George Dahlheimer

July 8, 1952 - February 26, 2026

Your prayers are requested for fellow parishioner, Gary Dahlheimer, who passed away recently and for his family. Gary was a long-time parishioner of St. John the Baptist Church and served the parish for many years as an usher and in recent years volunteered countless hours of time helping maintain the church and cemetery grounds. Gary is preceded in death by his parents, George and Eleanor and his brother, Mike. He is survived by his beloved wife of 50 years, LuAnne; children, Cybil (Joe) Kolenda, Emily Stimmler, and Andrew (Tina) Dahlheimer; his grandchildren, Olivia, Drew, Ruby, Avery, Eli, Myles, Ayla and Gemma; his siblings, Mary Becker, Barb (Larry) Ende, and Don (Karen) Dahlheimer; his sister-in-law, Cheryl Dahlheimer; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. The funeral Mass for Gary took place here at St. John's this past Wednesday, March 4 and burial was in St. John's Cemetery. May the Lord grant him eternal rest. We extend our sincere sympathy to his entire family and friends.

CATHOLIC Q & A

CHURCH DIVISION

Question: If we are all meant to be united in Christ, why is there so much division in the Church?

Answer: Each Sunday, we profess that we believe in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." The Church is indeed one because her source is the Trinity, and she is founded by Christ. The Church also exists in the fallen world and is made up of fallen people. Sometimes, there are tensions over what we believe as Catholics. Who is Jesus really? Are we affected by original sin? How do our traditional sexual ethics play out amidst medical and technological developments? Doctrinal disagreements are rarely just about ideas ... they occur within a context.

Tensions are influenced by various social and political factors of the time period. For example, Martin Luther's attempts at reform gained followers, in part, as a reaction against poor moral practices within the Catholic Church. When the schism between the Eastern Orthodox Church and the Catholic Church occurred in 1028, tensions between the two culturally different regions had been brewing for centuries.

Division still occurs within the bounds of the Church today. Oftentimes, this is about pastoral or practical matters. These Questions can vary. Should we incorporate Latin back into the liturgy? What is the best way to reach the youth in our parish? These may not be articles of faith, but people have strong opinions about what ought to be done. We can remember the prayer of Christ - "that all might be one" - and do what we can to grow in understanding and respectful dialogue. ©LPi
