Notes from the Pastor

Congratulations to our first communicants! I am very happy that this Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Easter, is when first communions fall this year, is also Good Shepherd Sunday. On Good Shepherd Sunday, we read from John chapter 10 and the Church encourages us to pray in a special way for vocations, because we have the icon of Christ the Good Shepherd calling us, his flock to follow.

One of the minor sources of frustration my parents have been dealing with as they age is that my dad, like many people, has had to get hearing aids, so if he doesn't put them in or they need to be charged, he cannot hear my mom in the next room over. As the Church invites us to listen to Christ, I think that is a good metaphor for us to ponder in our own lives: are we able to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd? If we can't, what are we doing to be more able to do so?

What are the equivalents to hearing aids - what helps us grow in prayer, be it small groups, or Bible studies, or sacred reading? Or do we need to move closer to the Lord, to make more time for prayer in our schedules or the physical spaces in which we pray? I want to encourage time with our Lord in adoration - we have adoration on Fridays, I know Rogers has it until 10 p.m. each workday, and both St. Michael's and St. Andrew's have almost perpetual adoration. Our weekend masses put us into contact with our Good Shepherd, who is truly present in the Eucharist, and we must try to listen to Jesus' voice not just once a week, but whenever the Lord calls us.

- Fr. John Powers

CCW SPRING OUTING

This year's CCW Spring Outing will be held on Thursday, May 2, at Liberty Restaurant and Bar in St. Michael. We will gather at 6:00 p.m. for cocktails with dinner to follow at 6:45 p.m.

ALL women of the parish, age 18 and older, are invited to enjoy an evening of great food, fellowship and relaxation. We especially want to encourage our new parishioners to join us - it's a great way to meet and get to know other women of the parish. RSVP required - call Deb Stang at 763.360.7860 by Monday, April 29.

HELP REDUCE OUR KITCHEN CLUTTER

There are a number of serving bowls and cake pans that have accumulated in the kitchen leftover from funeral luncheons and other parish events. Please stop by the kitchen and pick up your dishes today.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Next weekend our parish will be taking up the annual collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal to support "home mission" Dioceses which comprise nearly 40 percent of all U.S. dioceses which includes our own state's Dioceses of New Ulm, Crookston and Duluth. These dioceses struggle to fund basic and essential pastoral services like Mass, the sacraments, religious education and seminarian and lay ministry formation and are unable to attend to the needs that are unique to the communities they serve. Please strengthen the Church at home by being as generous as you are able. Please note: There will be no second collection for this appeal. If you would like to offer your financial support for this effort, please use the envelope included in today's bulletin to make your donation and drop it in the regular Sunday offertory next weekend.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER?

Are you new to the community? Would you like to become a member of our parish family? You can register by calling the parish office at 763.428.2828.

Stewardship
a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice."
- John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Our Shepherd

God the Father,
you are our shepherd,
who offer us green pastures,
and life-giving water.
Through love and kindness,
you lead your flock
to a restful place.
With your tender touch,
you cast away our fears.
There is nothing we want
but to remain by your side.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, April 21, 2024
The Good Shepherd

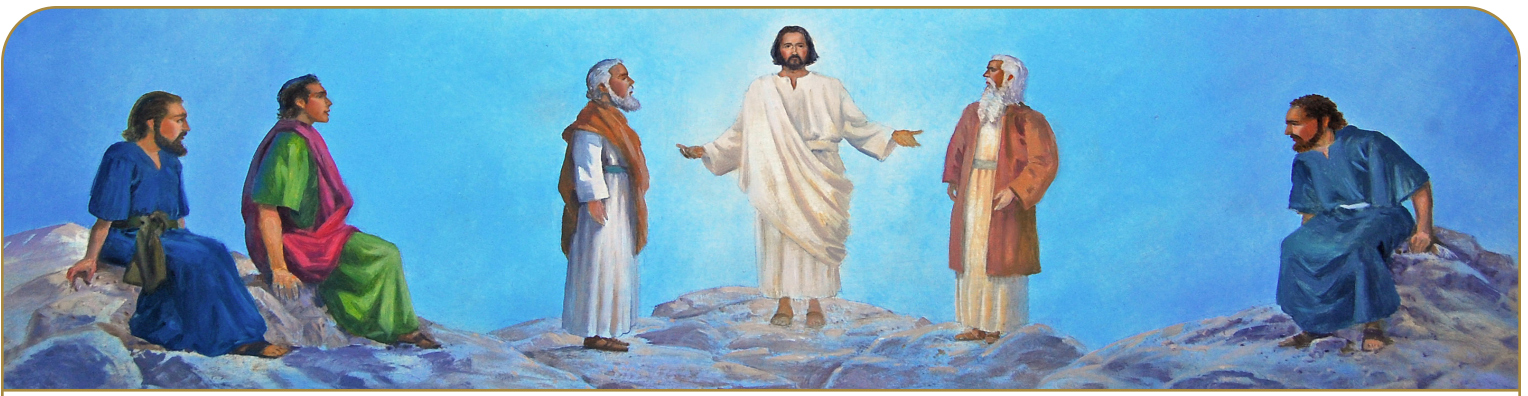

Today's readings: Acts 4:8–12; Psalm 118:1, 8–9, 21–23, 26, 28, 29; 1 John 3:1–2; John 10:11–18. When you see the Good Shepherd depicted in art, do you see yourself as the lamb? Do you see yourself as one to be protected, guided, and comforted? Or do you think the lamb reflects only a child? Imagining yourself as the lamb will provide insight into who God is for you. “I am the Good Shepherd, and I know mine, and mine know me,” Jesus says. This portrayal reveals the intimacy of our relationship with God. God knows us and has given us the capacity to know him.

The shepherd is willing to lay down his life for his sheep. The Good Shepherd has already done this for us, dying on the cross so that we may have eternal life. A hired hand, however, does not have this connection to the sheep; he would not sacrifice his life for the flock. This man “sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away.”

Our Shepherd is with us—in our loneliness and sorrow as well as in our joy. Spend a few minutes in quiet, imagining yourself with the Good Shepherd in a green pasture. Let him hear not only your voice but your deepest desires. Seek to expand your quiet prayer time this week so that you might hear the Good Shepherd’s voice. Remember your relationship with the Good Shepherd grows as you make space for him in your life.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, April 22

In Silence

“The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.” The Gospel of John portrays the Lord as intimately connected to his followers. They know his voice, and he has come so that “they might have life and have it more abundantly.” Only by pausing our busy lives can we hear God’s voice. Consider where you might have even a few minutes in a day to listen to God. Today’s readings: Acts 11:1–18; Psalm 42:2–3; 43:3, 4; John 10:1–10.

Tuesday, April 23

Listen

In today’s Gospel, we hear that people continue to badger Jesus to prove he is indeed the Son of God. “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly,” they say. These people are among those who do not recognize the shepherd’s voice. Once the sheep are in the flock, Jesus says, “No one can take them [sheep] out of the Father’s hands. The Father and I are one.” In coming chapters of the Gospel of John, we will hear Jesus yearn for that same unity with humankind. Today’s readings: Acts 11:19–26; Psalm 87:1b–3, 4–5, 6–7; John 10:22–30.

Wednesday, April 24

Obedying the Spirit

Today’s account from Acts shows Barnabas and Saul sailing to Cyprus to spread the Good News. They wasted no time in responding to the Holy Spirit, who told the community, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” How does your community help people discern their gifts and their mission in the Church? Is there anyone you can meet with in your parish to help you discern your calling to serve the Church and the world? Today’s readings: Acts 12:24–13:5a; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8; John 12:44–50.

Thursday, April 25

Feast of St. Mark

On the Feast of St. Mark, Evangelist, we hear in the Gospel, “Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature.” St. Mark is believed to be the disciple referred to in Acts as “John who is called Mark” (12:25). He was the son of Mary of Jerusalem, who opened her home to the disciples. It is believed that he met Peter, Paul, and other disciples in his mother’s home and then joined them in evangelizing. Today’s readings: 1 Peter 5:5b–14; Psalm 89:2–3, 6–7, 16–17; Mark 16:15–20.

Friday, April 26

Always Loving

With Thomas voicing confusion, Jesus lovingly replies, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” Thomas had followed Jesus for years and still questioned where the Lord was leading the disciples. Believers live with questions. Whether your faith is new or lifelong, you may at times be unsure of the spiritual path you are to follow. Jesus offers assurance that he is not only the way but the truth and the life. Today’s readings: Acts 13:26–33; Psalm 2:6–7, 8–9, 10–11ab; John 14:1–6.

Saturday, April 27

In Silence

“Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us,” Philip tells Jesus. There is a Philip in all of us, looking for reassurance of the presence of God in our lives. Sometimes we ask God for a sign to calm our fears. Jesus directs Philip and us to look not only to his words but his works. Where do you see the work of God in your community? Is there someone who needs reassurance that God is present during struggles? Today’s readings: Acts 13:44–52; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 14:7–14.
