From the Pastor

This past Wednesday I had a (very short) lapse into heresy. Both my parents have had melanoma so every 2-3 years, I go in for a dermatology appointment (although there is nothing, baselines are important so I go in to get told to come back in 2-3 years). While waiting in the exam room, I felt very undignified because I don't think you can feel dignified while in a hospital gown.

The heresy part comes into play because I blamed my body for my lack of dignity which is a very ancient heresy called Gnosticism. Gnosticism is a belief system that coopted the symbols of various religions - there was Jewish Gnosticism and Greek Gnosticism and Christian Gnosticism and even Confucian Gnosticism, but had at its core the idea that physical creation is generally evil and that our bodies are imprisoning us, and so we need secret knowledge (in Greek Gnosis, thus Gnosticism) to be free.

This weekend (half) the Church in the United States celebrates the feast of the Ascension (the other half celebrates it on Thursday when it should be celebrated). The Ascension of our Lord into heaven is why Gnosticism is a heresy - because our Lord Jesus Christ's body is in heaven, so bodies are not evil or prisons, but avenues by which we may become more like our Lord. Although it may be hard to remember that while in a hospital gown, or when you're feeling ill or tired or limited, or you've had someone insult you; we have dignity because of our Lord, who united our human nature to Himself.

- Fr. John Powers

MASS INTENTIONS

We have open dates in the Mass schedule for Mass intentions. Masses may be offered for the living or deceased and for various reasons like remembrance, thanksgiving, or special intentions. If you would like to schedule a mass intention, please call the parish office at 763.428.2828 or email sjbchurch@yahoo.com. The usual stipend is $7.00.

GARDENERS NEEDED

St. John's is seeking to form a group of volunteers who can commit to helping water the flowers and gardens on the church property. Ideally, we would like to assemble a group of 7 teams of 2 people each so each team would have to water only once a week. If interested in helping with this ministry, please call the parish office at 763.428.2828 or email sjbchurch@yahoo.com

C.R.O.S.S. FOOD SHELF NEWS

Monthly Collection - Next weekend is our regular time to contribute non-perishable food and dry good items to the local food shelf. Please pick up one of the grocery lists located at the exits of church today which has a list of most needed items, fill a grocery bag with items from this list, and return it next weekend with your donation. Monetary donations and /or Scrip gift cards may be placed in a specially marked envelope and dropped in the regular collection basket.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JUNE

That the world might grow in compassion - Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion of the world.

RELEVANT RADIO 1330 AM - Take your faith beyond Sunday and into the rest of the week with Relevant Radio! It's Talk Radio for Catholic Life!

Stewardship
a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

- Revelations 22:13

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week - putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work, or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional lifestyle. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

CATHOLIC Q & A

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Question: Couldn't Jesus have done more good if he stayed on earth, rather than ascended into heaven?

Answer: This is an interesting question! During his earthly life, Jesus gave sight to the blind, healed paralytics, drove out demons, and fed thousands with only a few loaves of bread. Imagine what he could have done if he'd never ascended into heaven! Imagine what our world could be! It's an interesting thought to consider, especially as the world faces challenges that only seem to deepen and expand. Yet at the Last Supper, Jesus says, "It is better for you if I go." Why? His response must have seemed strange to the Apostles at the time. In his place, Jesus says, he will send the Paraclete, the Comforter, the Advocate. He promises to send the Holy Spirit.

Jesus' departure allows the Apostles to become the leaders he has formed them to be. Jesus is no longer situated in only one geographical location, and his Church will never be a political kingdom. Soon after the Ascension, we celebrate Pentecost — the descent of the Holy Spirit and the radical empowerment of the followers of Jesus. We share in that empowerment and in that mission. Jesus is present in the sacraments, and he is present in us. Through our faith, hope, and love, we are called to be the good he does here on earth! ©LPi

Witnesses

Today's readings: Acts 1:1-11; Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9; Ephesians 1:17-23 or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24: 46-53. Before ascending to heaven, Jesus points to Scripture: "It is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations." He reminds his disciples that they are witnesses to these life-changing events. Being a witness requires recalling the event (or events) that one has seen. The disciples are called to share with all nations the news of the miraculous events that they have witnessed. You, too, are a witness to the paschal mystery and participate in it each time you attend Mass. As Mass ends, the priest dismisses the faithful to spread the news. That we are sent forth becomes evident in the dismissals "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" and "Go In peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."

Though preaching the Gospel may seem like an overwhelming task, God enables and accompanies us. Jesus tells the disciples to stay in Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit comes, and they "are clothed with the power from on high." The Spirit strengthens them to joyfully accept the difficult yet transformative call to be followers of Christ. We, too, must lean on God for the tenacity to live as the hands and feet of Christ. Pray for the wisdom to see the Holy Spirit moving through you.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, June 2

Sts. Marcellinus and Peter

Though little is known about Sts. Marcellinus and Peter, they were important enough to be included in one of our Eucharistic Prayers. Marcellinus and Peter were a priest and an exorcist, respectively, in the fourth century. Both were beheaded in 304. Today, their service to the Church is celebrated: those whose blood is shed in the name of their faith are joined closely to Christ and, thus, to us. Say a prayer in gratitude for the long tradition to which saints such as Marcellinus and Peter have dedicated themselves. Today's readings: Acts 19:1–8; Psalm 68:2–3ab, 4–5acd, 6–7ab; John 16:29–33.

Tuesday, June 3

St. Charles Lwanga and Companions

In various parts of Africa, St. Charles Lwanga is well known as the patron of youth and Catholic action. Charles and twenty-one other young Ugandans were burned to death for refusing to participate in immoral acts in 1886. The virtue of courage is exemplified in these martyrs. How can you courageously say yes to your faith in times of temptation? Today's readings: Acts 20:17–27; Psalm 68:10–11, 20–21; John 17:1–11a.

Wednesday, June 4

Tend the Church of God

Today we hear St. Paul address the presbyters. He is instructing them on the difficulties found in the community at Ephesus and surrounding areas. He warns them to guard the community against false prophets that are sure to emerge once he departs. He concludes his remarks by citing Jesus, who said, “It is more blessed to give than to receive.” How are you giving to the Church? What is a way you can “tend the Church of God”? Today's readings: Acts 20:28–38; Psalm 68:29–30, 33–35a, 35bc–36ab; John 17:11b–19.

Thursday, June 5

St. Boniface

St. Boniface was an English Benedictine monk. He dedicated himself to the conversion of Germanic tribes. To reform the German Church, Boniface was guided by two principles: restoring the obedience of wayward clergy and establishing Benedictine monasteries (houses of prayer). He was massacred with more than fifty others while preparing converts for confirmation. Today's readings: Acts 22:30, 23:6–11; Psalm 16:1–2a and 5, 7–8, 9–10, 11; John 17:20–26.

Friday, June 6

St. Norbert

St. Norbert founded the Premonstratensians, or the Norbertines, (a religious order) in twelfth-century France. They were tasked with combating heresies, revitalizing the faithful, and aiding in reconciliation efforts among enemies. St. Norbert knew that none of that important work could be done without God and found much strength in his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. If Eucharistic adoration is available in your area, schedule time to pray before the sacrament. If it is not available, spend time in silence praying near a tabernacle. Ask Jesus to strengthen your faith. Today's readings: Acts 25:13b–21; Psalm 103:1–2, 11–12, 19–20ab; John 21:15–19.

Saturday, June 7

Gazing on the Lord's Face

Joining the psalmist, we sing, “The just will gaze on your face, O Lord.” What is a just deed to which you can commit yourself as the end of the Easter season nears? How have you gazed on the Lord's face? Regardless of whether you consider yourself artistic, consider drawing or painting the face of the Lord that you are gazing upon. Challenge yourself to think creatively. Allow the Lord to speak to you through this time spent creating. Today's readings: Acts 28:16–20, 30–31; Psalm 11:4, 5 and 7; John 21:20–25.
