From the Pastor

One of the hot button issues in the early Church was the treatment of the lapsi - those who after baptism had "lapsed" and committed grave public sin such as murder, adultery, or worst of all offered worship to the Roman gods even under pressure. While the moderates eventually carried the day with their insistence that after penance repentant lapsi could be forgiven, even noted theologians like Tertullian and Hippolytus fell into schism because the Church was "too" forgiving and groups like the Donatists persisted for centuries because they refused to admit or have communion with the "impure."

The reason I am taking you all down this historical rabbit hole is that Jesus commands us to love our enemies. This is already an objectively hard teaching, and even harder when the people who hurt us are close to us. But we can see this teaching lived out in the life of Jeremiah, who even after the incident in today's first reading where he is left in a muddy well to die, continues both in Jeremiah and Baruch to advise the group of people who threw him into that well and in Lamentations mourns over the destruction of Jerusalem.

It is easy for us to throw in the towel or to question whether the Lord really wants us to love those who have harmed us - after all in today's Gospel Jesus says he has come to cause division. But the Church has long understood the division does not come from us, but rather a reaction to her living out of the Gospel, of keeping our eyes fixed upon the Lord, and that is what she calls us to do in our day and age, to love our enemies, to do good to those who hate us, and to follow after the Lord, who endured the shame and suffering of the cross to make known to us God's love.

- Fr. John Powers

ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITY Find Help and Inspiration from the Men and Women Who Transformed the World

There is no better place to look for guidance in the New Evangelization than the Acts of the Apostles. This chronicle of the Church in action gives us the blueprint for the life and mission of the Church today. In Evangelization and the Acts of the Apostles, Dr. Mary Healy combines Bible study with Church teaching and practical wisdom to show you how modern Catholics can effectively lead people to Jesus Christ. No prior bible study experience is necessary. Please join us Monday evenings from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. beginning September 15, 2025. Please let Sheila Long know if you are interested: 763.428.4539 or clongsh13@gmail.com.

175TH ANNIVERSARY KEEPSAKE BOOK

As you have probably heard, this year the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is celebrating its 175th anniversary. In order to help people appreciate the importance of this event, the Archdiocese commissioned a beautiful "Coffee Table" book entitled "In Everything, Give Thanks" detailing the history and current state of the Archdiocese in words and pictures. This 560-page masterpiece spotlights the people, parishes, Catholic schools and other Catholic entities that have contributed to the strength of this local Church from 1850 to today. Don't miss this opportunity to acquire this treasure trove and collector's keepsake! St. John's has acquired a limited number of these books and are making them available to you. Books are available to view in the vestibule at the Scrip table. For a donation of $60 or more to our Liturgy Fund, you will receive a free copy. Donations to the Liturgy Fund will be earmarked for the re-plating of our sacred vessels and candlesticks. Please make your check payable to "St. John the Baptist - Liturgy Fund".

Stewardship
a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."
- Luke 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage, and religious liberty.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

The Liturgical Minister Schedule Request Form for September thru October included in last weekend's bulletin is due next weekend. All liturgical ministers as well as Scrip sellers are asked to fill out and return one of these forms as this helps considerably in the scheduling process. With the addition of a 7:30 a.m. Sunday morning Mass starting September 14, we are earnestly seeking additional ministers for all the various ministries. Additional Ministry Schedule Request Forms are located at the exits. Please consider offering your gifts to serve your parish community as a Liturgical Minister. Thank you!

FESTIVAL TENT PURCHASE

Because the company that we rent the tents from made the decision to no longer rent these specific tents after this year and offered to sell them to us at a reduced price, the Festival Committee made the decision to purchase them. The purchase price was $18,000 with this year's rental fee of $4,320 going toward the purchase price (the fees to rent the new tents they will be carrying would have been over $9,800 next year). 3 generous parishioners have donated $3,500.00 towards the purchase of the tents with a challenge for others to help defray the cost of purchasing the old tents. If you would like to make a donation toward the purchase of these tents, please clearly mark your donation "Festival Tents" and drop it in the regular collection basket or mail it to the church.

NEXT STEP IN THE FAITH JOURNEY FOR YOUR COLLEGE-BOUND STUDENT

As your child prepares to leave for college, consider the fact that over 80% of students stop practicing the faith in college. Many students say it's because they didn't receive an invite! Let's change this! Newman Ministry can help connect students to the Catholic ministry on their chosen college campus. This simple connection will help ensure that they get that invite that many never receive. Easy to implement and a little commitment, this program can help you deliver big time for your child and have an even greater effect on the future of the Church. Go to <http://newmanministry.com> to learn more.

MINNESOTA TWINS GAME - ALTAR SERVER APPRECIATION FAMILY EVENT

We have reserved Twins tickets for the Sunday, September 14, game vs the Diamondbacks and all are invited for this event to thank our altar servers for helping with our worship services. If you're interested in joining us, please email Sarah Moylan at sarah.sjbchurch@gmail.com for more information by this Wednesday.

FESTIVAL YARD SIGNS

If you see any of the small yard signs advertising our Parish Festival still out as you are driving about, please pick them up and return them to the social hall of the church so they may be reused next year. Thank you.

CATHOLIC Q & A

QUEENSHIP OF MARY

Question: Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

Answer: For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.
