*"Lord, if my brother sins against me,
how often must I forgive?
As many as seven times?"
Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times."*

From the Pastor

This last week the Church celebrated the memorial of St. Peter Claver - a Spanish Jesuit who died in 1654 in Colombia, who was noted particularly for his ministry to enslaved people in the northern part of South America. The reason I'm bringing him up is that for his feast, one of the options for his prayers is that of "for those who worked for the underprivileged" which included an excerpt of one of my favorite writings of the Church Fathers, St. John Chrysostom's commentary on the Romans. In it St. John talks about how we are called to share in Christ's work of redemption by practicing the works of mercy, which brings us to this weekend's readings.

We're taught usually from a very young age about the importance of forgiveness - to say we're sorry and then to forgive people who apologize - and while that is important to the basic functioning of society, we as Catholic Christians should understand what St. John Chrysostom did that there is more going on than just social niceties. When we show mercy, we are in fact participating in the Lord's showing of mercy - as we pray in The Lord's Prayer that we ask the Father to forgive our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. When we show mercy, we align ourselves with Christ, and we allow the Lord's grace to take root in us - as the whammy of that excerpt goes "The Lord desires for you to have confidence in yourself". That confidence comes from us following the example of the Lord. By doing his works, we should know that we are sharing in his life.

- Fr. John Powers

ARCHBISHOP HEBDA'S LETTER TO FAMILIES IS HERE!

We know family life can be messy - even Jesus, Mary and Joseph lived amid the harsh realities of their own time. And our Church wants to walk with you and your families through these struggles, joys and everything in between.

Read Archbishop Hebda's pastoral letter to families, "Only One Thing is Necessary," available now at archspm.org/familyletter. Alongside it find a Small Group Guide, podcast recordings in both English and Spanish, and a way to order your own hardbound keepsake version of the letter. It is Archbishop's deep desire that, in it, every individual in this Archdiocese will see his or her role in the great task at hand, what's at stake, and how we can all strive to be united with our families and with each other, in this life and the next. Holy Family - Jesus, Mary and Joseph - pray for us.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST SMALL GROUPS

The St. John the Baptist Small Groups are kicking off their 3rd year this fall and are inviting all parishioners to consider joining a small group. If you are looking for a way to learn more about our Catholic faith and get to know other parishioners in a welcoming and friendly environment, this is for you! Please see the insert in this week's bulletin that outlines each small group, the topics to be discussed, meeting dates and times, contact information, and sign-up details. You may also sign up via the sign-up sheets located on the table near the vestibule, or you may contact Teri Ray at 612.741.5603 or Cindy Gibbs at 763.442-1980. Small groups strive to deepen our relationship with God and we hope you will join us. We look forward to hearing from you!

SAINT'S QUOTE FOR THE WEEK

"A friend is more to be longed for than the light; I speak of a genuine one. And wonder not: for it were better for us that the sun should be extinguished, than that we should be deprived of friends; better to live in darkness, than to be without friends"

- St. John Chrysostom (349-407), Feast Day - September 13

Stewardship
a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

This is the essence of stewardship - everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

WE WELCOME IN BAPTISM

Josie Mae Schlemmer

daughter of Philip and Melissa Schlemmer baptized on Saturday, September 5, 2026

We also welcomed into the Catholic Church on Saturday, September 5, 2026 - Jordan Michael Schlemmer son of Philip and Melissa Schlemmer. We welcome our newest members to our faith community. We congratulate their family and pray that these children will grow in wisdom and grace before all.

FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Regular Friday Eucharistic Adoration has resumed. Adoration takes place in our St. Therese Chapel beginning after the Friday morning 8:00 a.m. Mass until 7:00 p.m. most Fridays. We are in need of regular adorers to commit to 1 hour shifts. If you are willing to commit to an hour with our Lord, please sign up on the bulletin board near the vestibule. We invite all parishioners to stop by on Fridays and give some time - whether is be 10 minutes, a half hour or more - to our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

SURVIVOR SUPPORT GROUPS

These groups are currently meeting and open to all victims/survivors of abuse in the United States:

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

TLC THIS WEEK - Faith Formation resumes this week with TLC Kids on Monday at 3:00 p.m. and Wednesday sessions at 5:30 p.m., 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. If your children are unable to attend or if you have any other questions, please email Sarah at sarah.sjbchurch@gmail.com.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD - At St. John the Baptist we offer Children's Liturgy of the Word during our 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass during the school year. Children's Liturgy is best suited for children between the ages of three and seven; once they have begun second grade, they should be staying in Mass and listening to the readings and Father's homily. After Mass has begun, but before the first reading, Father Powers will ask the children to come up for a blessing. Our Faith Formation Director, Sarah Moylan, or another catechist will then bring the children to the Chapel for a lesson on that Sunday's Gospel reading. Parents are always welcome to join us. We will return the children during the Presentation of the Gifts, so that we can celebrate the Sacrament of the Eucharist with our entire faith community. There is no need to register for Children's Liturgy, and guests are always welcome.

WE REMEMBER

Gregory P. Shusta

March 3, 1960 - May 24, 2026

Your prayers are requested for Gregory Shusta of our parish, who passed away recently and for his family. Greg is survived by his wife, Karen of 46 years; his son, Joshua (Erin); his daughter, Amy (Luke) Schumann; his 6 cherished grandchildren, Kyle (Morgan), Elizabeth, Chloe, Austin, Dylan and Mikayla; his mother; brothers and sisters; and many other family members and friends. The funeral Mass for Greg took place here at St. John's on Saturday, September 12 and burial was in St. John's Cemetery. May the Lord grant him eternal rest. We extend our sincere sympathy to his entire family and friends.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE: FOR THOSE WHO LOST A CHILD BEFORE BIRTH

Saturday, October 17 - 10:00 a.m. at Gethsemane Cemetery Chapel Mausoleum, New Hope. This special service of remembrance is for anyone who lost a child before birth, whether recently or many years ago. During this ritual, each family is called forth, where they may name their child. They also light a candle to honor and remember their child. This service offers a safe place to acknowledge the children who died before birth. All are welcome to this free event. Registration is required. You may find more information at catholic-cemeteries.org/events.

CATHOLIC Q & A

COMMUNION REQUIREMENTS

Question: Why can't everyone who wants to receive Communion, receive Communion at Mass?

Answer: Outside of the Church, many organizations have all sorts of requirements for membership: dues, achievements, professional standings, etc. The requirements bring the group together in common purposes and goals. Within the Church, there are also basic "requirements" for receiving the sacraments. As Catholics, we believe that the Eucharist is the true "Bread of Life." It is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. When we receive the Eucharist, we are receiving Jesus. Out of reverence for Christ, only those in union with this teaching and in a state of grace should receive communion. As Catholics, we should abstain from communion if we are in mortal sin.

While we share many articles of faith with our Protestant brothers and sisters, their understanding of this teaching is fundamentally different. For most non-Catholic churches, they do not believe that Christ becomes truly present in the Eucharist. As such, they should not receive communion in a Catholic Church. These differences are greater for people of non-Christian faiths, and even more apparent for those who do not believe in God. Receiving communion is not a right, but a gift to be accepted in humble, trusting faith.

St. John the Baptist Small Groups (Fall 2026) - Please join us! All are welcome!

Adult Faith Formation: The Bible Timeline: The Story of Salvation

This the second half of the bible study which began in January 2026. The Bible Timeline Story of Salvation series will teach us how to read and understand the entire Bible and will introduce us to the wonderful narrative of the Scripture in a way that will transform life. Meetings resume the second, third and fourth Mondays of each month resuming on September 14th through December 21st, 2026, from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. in the parish social hall. Facilitated by Sheila Long (763) 428-4539.

Learning to be Better Disciples of Jesus

Join us as we strive to deepen our Catholic faith and to learn to be better disciples of Jesus Christ. We will explore Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John, various gospel readings/teaching, learn how to recognize how the Holy Spirit is working in our lives, along with other interesting faith-filled topics. Meetings are on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month beginning on September 22nd from 6:00-7:30/8:00 pm. Facilitated by Russ (612) 723-3155 and Teri Ray (612) 741-5603 in their home in Dayton.

How to Reach Heaven

If you are interested in the goal of attaining heaven, we have the group for you! This dynamic group explores topics such as praying without ceasing, roadblocks to heaven, God's grace, virtues and humility. Come join us as we learn, grow, and encourage one another on the journey toward heaven! Meetings resume on Monday, September 21st. All meetings are bi-weekly on Mondays at 6:00 pm at the Church. Facilitated by Jim Penick (612) 221-8513.

The Letter of St. James (using the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible by Dr. Scott Hahn)

This interesting study will use biblical text, the Church's own guidelines with commentary and explanation to provide historical, cultural, geographical and theological information in an easy to understand format resulting in a deeper understanding of God's Holy Word. Bring a bible, watch the session video, with time for sharing and prayer. 12-14 sessions. Meetings are every other Monday beginning on September 28th from 6:00 – 7:30 pm. Facilitated by Sharon Williams (763) 244-9523 in her home in Rogers.
