From the Pastor

This weekend I am in Minneapolis at the Knight of the Holy Sepulchre conference. Fr. Patrick Hipwell will be filling in for me this weekend, and not to turn this column into an ode about him, Fr. Patrick was my first boss as a priest. I was assigned to be his associate at Nativity of Our Lord in St. Paul, and although I learned many things from him, the one that is most fitting for this weekend is the importance of thrift.

Thrift, in my opinion and why I use it to describe Fr. Patrick, is being frugal for a purpose. Fr. Patrick was more than willing to spend money on things that mattered, like capital improvements to the parish, or funding for the truly massive school at Nativity, or on higher quality vestments, but he contrasted with a great simplicity of life that he still models to this day. The point that he gets (and that I didn't as a vicar but do a little more now that I'm a pastor), that the people of Israel that Amos is admonishing in our first reading do not, that Paul is trying to make Timothy as a new bishop, and Jesus is warning his disciples about, is that money, along with all the other gifts that God gives us, is meant to be used in such a way that it builds up the Kingdom of God.

This building of the Kingdom may be by providing security for our families, by helping the poor, by supporting the needs of the Church, but as our Lord tells us, where our treasure is, there our hearts also are. Thrift calls us to be wise with our money, so that we may use it to seek the Lord and to do his will.

- Fr. John Powers

Stewardship
a way of life

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth)." - Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run "neck and neck" as top priority. Is money a "god" that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

ST. JOHN'S WELCOMES GUEST SPEAKER All are invited to attend!

Why does hockey have so many rules? Do we still need to have penalty boxes? Can't we get rid of offside? And why is practice so important? What's the big deal with the Commissioner? And coaches? And referees? Why can't they just let us play? Anyone involved in hockey – players, parents, fans – would never take any of these questions seriously. Without the rules, there would be no hockey. And without the drills there would be no thrills. And yet Catholics ask similar questions about the Church all the time. Why does the Church have so many rules? Why do we have to go to confession? Why do we need priests? And what's the big deal with the Pope? Why does the faith have to be so difficult? Can't we just play? If you have ever needed help explaining the faith to your children, your friends and family, or even your foes, this is your new playbook. The Catechism of Hockey is one of the most unlikely, but effective Catholic resources for the New Evangelization.

Join us Wednesday, October 1 at 6:00 p.m. for a talk by Alyssa Bormes, the author of Catechism of Hockey. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and our faith formation families will receive a copy for this year's book study. After Ms. Bormes speaks, we will enjoy cupcakes in the social hall. Hope to see you there!

175TH ANNIVERSARY KEEPSAKE BOOK

This year the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is celebrating its 175th anniversary. In order to help people appreciate the importance of this event, the Archdiocese commissioned a beautiful "Coffee Table" book entitled "In Everything, Give Thanks" detailing the history and current state of the Archdiocese in words and pictures. This 560-page masterpiece spotlights the people, parishes, Catholic schools and other Catholic entities that have contributed to the strength of this local Church from 1850 to today. Don't miss this opportunity to acquire this treasure trove and collector's keepsake! St. John's has acquired a limited number of these books and are making them available to you. Books are available to view in the vestibule at the Scrip table. For a donation of $60 or more to our Liturgy Fund, you will receive a free copy. Donations to the Liturgy Fund will be earmarked for the re-plating of our sacred vessels and candlesticks. Please make your check payable to "St. John the Baptist - Liturgy Fund".

ANNUAL CANDLELIGHT ROSARY PROCESSION

Friday, October 3 - 7:00 p.m., State Capitol to Cathedral of Saint Paul, St. Paul. The Annual Candlelight Rosary Procession will begin lining up at 6:30 p.m., with the procession beginning at 7:00 p.m. Bishop Kevin Kenney will be presiding. The procession will be dedicated to praying for all those affected by the tragedy at Annunciation, Minneapolis.

RECLAIMING SUNDAYS

The focus of the third and fourth year of the Synod Implementation Plan centers on the family as primary educators of their children. The Year 3 initiative has been subtitled "Reclaiming Sundays" and each parish of the Archdiocese is asked to assist this effort. Each month we will give you a new theme and some sample activities to help you put into practice that theme in order to help you live out the gift of Sunday to its fullest.

September - Prayer September's theme is a foundational pillar in the 12-month campaign. Prayer is the cornerstone for all "Reclaiming Sundays" efforts and will be carried throughout all the months. The recommended resource to assist in building habits of prayer is the Hal-low App. Sample Activities for September:

- Attend Mass every Sunday this month.
- Prepare your family for Mass by reading the Gospel in advance. Consider laying out clothes, find everyone's shoes, and do anything else that will make the morning peaceful and efficient
- Pray before meals as a family and individually.
- Institute Lord's Day evening prayer on either Saturday or Sunday and ask for everyone in the family to offer prayer intentions.
- Visit an adoration chapel for 15 minutes, 30 minute or more as a family. Resource for going to adoration: www.youtube.com/watch?v=irLkwdkeotw.
