From the Pastor

One of the methods of prayer is Ignatian Contemplation or spiritual imagination - essentially putting yourself in the scripture passage you are reading. While doing so with this weekend's gospel, I found myself in an unusual place - that of the rich man, because as I was reminded of while at my weekend conference, I (and really the entire Archdiocese) has a lot of blessings I take for granted - but while pretty buildings are nice, what I really underappreciate tends to be the people: our Archbishop, our growing parish, the level of devotion the people of our Archdiocese have for our Lord in the Eucharist.

These are the signs of the Lord's favor, and unlike the rich man, who does not appreciate his wealth and therefore neglects those who are in need, we are meant to share with others the good things that we have been given. Based upon how well the capital campaign is going and overall, how our parish finances are, I don't think I need to emphasize the importance of material sharing, but we (and I certainly include myself in this and why I think this came up in prayer) are meant to give of ourselves, to share with others the graces that we receive from the Lord.

- Fr. John Powers

ST. JOHN'S WELCOMES GUEST SPEAKER

All are invited to attend!

Why does hockey have so many rules? Do we still need to have penalty boxes? Can't we get rid of offside? And why is practice so important? What's the big deal with the Commissioner? And coaches? And referees? Why can't they just let us play? Anyone involved in hockey - players, parents, fans - would never take any of these questions seriously. Without the rules, there would be no hockey. And without the drills there would be no thrills. And yet Catholics ask similar questions about the Church all the time. Why does the Church have so many rules? Why do we have to go to confession? Why do we need priests? And what's the big deal with the Pope? Why does the faith have to be so difficult? Can't we just play? If you have ever needed help explaining the faith to your children, your friends and family, or even your foes, this is your new playbook. The Catechism of Hockey is one of the most unlikely, but effective Catholic resources for the New Evangelization.

Join us this Wednesday, October 1 at 6:00 p.m. for a talk by Alyssa Bormes, the author of Catechism of Hockey. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and our faith formation families will receive a copy for this year's book study. After Ms. Bormes speaks, we will enjoy cupcakes in the social hall. Hope to see you there!

RECLAIMING SUNDAYS

The focus of the third and fourth year of the Synod Implementation Plan centers on the family and parents as primary educators of their children. The Year 3 initiative has been subtitled "Reclaiming Sundays" and each parish of the Archdiocese is asked to assist this effort. Each month we will give you a new theme and some sample activities to help you put into practice that theme in order to help you live out the gift of Sunday to its fullest.

September - Prayer September's theme is a foundational pillar in the 12-month campaign. Prayer is the cornerstone for all "Reclaiming Sundays" efforts and will be carried throughout all the months. The recommended resource to assist in building habits of prayer is the Hal-low App. Sample Activities for September:

- Attend Mass every Sunday this month.
- Prepare your family for Mass by reading the Gospel in advance. Consider laying out clothes, find everyone's shoes, and do anything else that will make the morning peaceful and efficient
- Pray before meals as a family and individually.
- Institute Lord's Day evening prayer on either Saturday or Sunday and ask for everyone in the family to offer prayer intentions.
- Visit an adoration chapel for 15 minutes, 30 minute or more as a family. Resource for going to adoration: www.youtube.com/watch?v=irLkwdkeotw.

LORD, RENEW YOUR CHURCH

Sustaining Our Cathedral and Basilica

$30M of the Lord, Renew Your Church campaign will be used for essential renovations, deferred maintenance, and upgrades at both churches to ensure their preservation for the glory of God and the sustenance of His people. The Cathedral of Saint Paul and the Basilica of Saint Mary, among the most significant houses of worship in our nation, are beacons in our Archdiocese, literally and figuratively drawing people to our Church.

As our parish draws closer to our goal, the benefits will grow significantly! If we surpass our stretch goal and achieve between 151% and 199% of our initial goal, the parish share will increase to an impressive 90%. And if we reach twice our target, the parish will receive 100% of the funds raised beyond 200% of our goal. This is an incredible opportunity for us to make a lasting impact on our community and our parish!

CAMPAIGN UPDATE

As of September 19, 2025

Thanks to the generous hearts of our Parish Community, St. John the Baptist has raised $431,300 out of our $500,000 stretch goal. We are 86% of the way there! Our parishioners continue to give generously! 80% of all additional funds now stay right here in Dayton. We are deeply grateful for those who have already contributed to our goal. If you have not yet been specifically invited to participate in this historic campaign, please prayerfully consider your participation until you receive more information. Thank you for joining us on this journey!
