From the Pastor

In the traditional political thought of the western world, there are three pillars to society: the State, the Church, and the Family. The Family is the most primordial and therefore has the highest priority, followed by the Church, and then by the State, which we see a little of in this weekend's Gospel - render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's, but the family is what does the rendering.

In Enlightenment political thought, which serves as the basis for our American experiment, and much of the modern era, the Church was seen as something that should be confined to the private sphere. Per Enlightenment thought what you believe in is subjective (even though it's really not) and therefore religion is a private matter and should be treated as such. Following that minimizing of one pillar, we have seen in much of the modern era a breakdown of another, as the family unit, first off that of the extended family, and moving into the immediate family, has struggled. One of the consequences of these realities is that modern governments of all stripes have assumed more and more duties and prerogatives that belong properly and historically to the Church and the Family, to the point where for many of us politics and party have assumed the role that has historically been filled by religion.

While I don't believe this bulletin article or even a series of bulletin articles is going to magically right society and restore the historic balance, I do think talking and thinking about this helps, because if we start thinking about what we are called to do as a parish, as part of the Church, and how we live as immediate and extended families, whether biological or chosen, we can start to right ourselves and through ourselves the world. That may seem like a big undertaking, but as Archbishop Hebda talks about in his pastoral letter - which I encourage you all to read if you haven't done so - holiness begins in small ways, in desiring to deepen our relationship with the Lord and taking small steps to do so.

- Fr. John Powers

CATHOLIC BY CHRISTMAS

We are offering an accelerated OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) for anyone who is interested in joining the Church - be it an unbaptized person, a baptized person who would like to be received into full communion, or a Catholic who needs to complete their sacraments of initiation (Baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist). Classes begin today (Sunday, October 18) at 10:10 a.m. in the social hall with the ultimate goal of administering the sacraments on December 13. Please stop by in the social hall if interested.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This Weekend - October 17 and 18

This weekend we join Catholics around the world to celebrate World Mission Sunday. On this day we are called to offer our prayers and financial help for the Church's missionary work in more than 1,130 mission territories across the globe. Working with limited means, local churches bear witness to the Gospel amid scarcity, conflict and instability. Your prayers and generous help in today's collection provides hope where despair too often dominates - through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics and Catholic schools. Please note: There will be no second collection for this appeal. If you would like to offer your financial support for this effort, please place your donation in the regular Sunday offertory basket and clearly mark your donation "World Missions". Please be as generous as you are able and please continue to keep the missions in your prayers.

NEW IN THE COMMUNITY? WE WELCOME YOU!

Please call the parish office at 763.428.2828 to register.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's.
- Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

CATHOLIC Q & A

LORD'S PRAYER

Question: Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer: The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction! ©LPi

Minnesota Catholic Conference
CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

Your resource for discovering where the candidates stand on the issues

2026 is a big election year in Minnesota. Every U.S. House seat is up for election, as is one U.S. Senate seat. At the state level, Minnesotans will also elect a new governor, and every seat in the state Legislature, in both the House and Senate, is on the ballot. Thus, this is a pivotal year for our state's future.

But before Minnesotans go to the polls on November 3, the August 11 primary elections will decide which candidates will represent the respective political parties and appear on the November ballot. In many cases, intra-party primary elections will determine who ends up serving in office, which makes having strong voter turnout in the primaries very important.

As they prepare to vote, faithful citizens must form their conscience with principles of Catholic social teaching to participate rightly in the public arena. They also must inform themselves about the issues and where the candidates stand. Voting is only one part of faithful citizenship, but an important one, as we continually work to transform our state.

As candidates from all parties hit the campaign trail for the primary elections (August 11) and general election (November 3), MCC staff has created this guide to help you get a better sense of where candidates stand on issues so that you can be informed as you vote. We encourage you to reach out and talk to candidates about these issues, and their positions can often be found on their website or on social media as well.

QUESTIONS FOR U.S. HOUSE AND SENATE CANDIDATES (U.S. CONGRESS)

- What will you do to promote and support meaningful immigration reform?
- How will you work to limit the ability of the president to use the military and engage in warfare without congressional authorization?
- Will you oppose efforts to eliminate from law the federal scholarship tax credit that stimulates giving to scholarship-granting organizations?
- Do you support the reinstatement of the federal assault weapons ban that was allowed to expire in 2004?
- Will you work to ban gambling in the form of prediction markets such as Polymarket and Kalshi?
- How will you work to rein in federal spending and the further devaluing of the currency?
- Will you work to keep in place federal bans on taxpayer funding of abortion such as the Hyde Amendment?

QUESTIONS FOR GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATES

- A new federal scholarship program enacted in 2025 stimulates donations to scholarship-granting organizations by allowing donors a tax credit of up to $1,700. But states can choose to opt into the program for students to be eligible to receive scholarships stimulated by those donations. If elected, would you opt into the program so that Minnesota students can receive scholarships stimulated by these tax credits?
- What qualities will you look for in the judges you appoint to the bench?
- How specifically will you crack down on fraud in state government programs?

For more information about election logistics, visit mncatholic.org/election2026.

QUESTIONS FOR GUBERNATORIAL AND STATE LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES (HOUSE AND SENATE)

Protecting the Right to Life

- Will you refuse to sign legislation that legalizes assisted suicide and endangers vulnerable people such as the elderly, chronically ill, those on public assistance or who have medical debt, and those with disability?
- What will you do to protect the right to life of the child in the womb from the moment of conception?
- Will you oppose mandated public and private insurance coverage of unethical fertility treatments such as in vitro fertilization?
- What policies do you support to limit gun violence?

Protection of the Poor, the Vulnerable, and Creation

- Will you support a ban on commercial surrogacy arrangements that commodify women and children?
- Do you oppose the legalization of online sports gambling?
- What policies do you propose that promote greater inclusion for those with disability?
- What reforms or improvements would you make to the state's social safety net?
- What are your solutions for ensuring that people have access to home care or long-term care at the end of life? What do you propose to do about the workforce shortage in healthcare?
- How do you propose Minnesota best steward its natural resources, particularly water?

Supporting Education and Defending Religious Liberty

- Do you support expanding choice in education by allowing a student who opts out of a public school to take the approximately $7,000 provided to each student by the state through the education funding formula and put it in an education savings account to use as that student's family sees fit, including for nonpublic school tuition?
- Will you oppose proposals that will attack free speech and religious liberty such as the misnamed Equal Rights Amendment?
- Will you oppose proposals to eliminate longstanding non-public school pupil student aid programs for essential services such as busing, nursing, counseling, testing, and textbooks?
- What do you propose for policies that protect students from mass shootings in schools?
- What ideas do you have to put ethical guard rails around the use of technology, including artificial intelligence?

Strengthening Families and Economic Security

- Do you support the Minnesota Starter Homes Act? If not, what policies do you support to put home ownership within the reach of more people?
- Do you support expansion of the state child tax credit so that it reaches deeper into the middle class?If not, what policies do you propose to help make Minnesota more affordable for families? What reforms or improvements would you make to the state's social safety net?
- Do you support tax incentives for closely held businesses to transfer ownership to cooperatives or employee-owned corporations?
